

■ Who we are

Since 1965, Tri-County OIC Adult Learning Center has provided quality academic, vocational, workforce, and family education classes to more than 1,200 students each year at 20 sites in Cumberland, Dauphin, Perry, and York counties.

OIC offers programs to achieve basic literacy skills, family literacy, GED/high school diploma, and vocational skills, as well as job development, counseling, and placement services.

■ Our mission

Our mission is to deliver educational and training services that are high quality and learner-focused by capitalizing on the experience of our staff, the support of our partners, and the resources of our community. Through education we help our students to become better workers, better citizens, and better family members.

At OIC, we train people for life.

6/07

Tri-County OIC admits students of any race, color, national and ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin in the administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs or any other school-administered programs.

n Where is OIC's GED Testing Center located?

OIC's GED Testing Center is located on the first floor of OIC's Adult Learning Center at 500 Maclay Street in Harrisburg.

The OIC Adult Learning Center is one block from the Sixth Street Capital Area Transit bus line and four blocks east of the Governor's Residence.

n How can I register my students or myself?

To register for GED testing, contact OIC at 238-7318 or info@tricountyoc.org. You can also download the registration forms at www.tricountyoc.org.

After you complete the registration forms and pay the GED testing fee, we will notify you of your testing date. (Call OIC for the current testing fee and accepted payment methods.)

n What do I need to know about GED testing?

- Unless you meet additional requirements, you must be 18 or older to take the test.
- The five general testing areas are Language Arts Writing, Social Studies, Science, Language Arts Reading, and Mathematics.
- All tests are timed; most questions are multiple choice.
- You need a total score of 2250 points (an average of 450 points per test) or better to pass the GED. No individual score can be below 410 points.
- You must have a photo ID and be a Pennsylvania resident to take the test.
- You must register for testing at least two days before taking the test to guarantee a seat.
- Walk-ins accepted if seats are available.
- All payments are due prior to testing.
